

The 2016 Cambridge Testing Situational Action Theory (SAT) Workshop

1-3 April 2016

The Møller Centre

The 2014 Testing SAT workshop

The Møller Centre, Churchill College
University of Cambridge

Workshop Co-Chairs: P-O Wikström & Kyle Treiber

Friday, 1 April

13:00 Lunch

14:30 The cross-national comparative book : Testing SAT Cross-nationally

Chair and moderator: Kyle Treiber

14:30 Crime propensity and self-reported delinquent behavior: Testing SAT using ISRD3 data

Dirk Enzmann

15:00 Suggested book outline and discussion

Kyle Treiber

15:45 Protocols and materials

Kyle Treiber

16:30 Coffee break

17:00 Group work sessions

Time set off for small group meetings on topics emerging out of those discussed in the general session

18:00 Bar opens

19:00 Buffet dinner

The 2014 Testing SAT workshop

Saturday, 2 April

07:30 Breakfast

09:30 Theorising pathways in crime

Chair: Clemens Kroneberg

09:30 Analysing change: The DEA model of SAT
P-O Wikström

10:00 Discussant
Klaus Boers

10:30 Pathways in crime: Recent new findings from PADS+

Chair: Clemens Kroneberg

10:30 Trajectories of crime, crime propensity and criminogenic exposure
P-O Wikström, Gabriela Roman & Kyle Treiber

11:00 Coffee break

11:30 Explaining pathways in crime by trajectories of crime propensity and criminogenic exposure
Gabriela Roman, Kyle Treiber & P-O Wikström

12:00 The drivers of propensity and exposure – some preliminary findings
Gabriela Roman, P-O Wikström & Kyle Treiber

12:30 Discussant (PADS+ analyses of pathways in crime)
Jost Reinecke

13:00 Lunch

The 2014 Testing SAT workshop

Saturday, 2 April (continued)

14:00 European Journal of Criminology Special Issue on SAT (Editors: Jost Reinecke & Helmut Hirtenlehner)

Presentation and discussion of draft contributions

Chair: Helmut Hirtenlehner

14:00 Young people's differential vulnerability to criminogenic exposure: Bridging the gap between people and place oriented approaches in the study of crime causation

P-O Wikström, Richard Mann & Beth Hardie

14:30 Testing situational action theory: A narrative of published studies between 2006-2015

Lieven Pauwels, Robert Svensson & Helmut Hirtenlehner

15:00 The development of moral judgement in adolescence: Testing situational action theory with German panel data

Debbie Schepers & Jost Reinecke

15:30 Coffee Break

16:00 Analysing the perception-choice process in situational action theory: A randomised scenario study

Lieven Pauwels

16:30 Who's hanging out and what's happening? A network perspective on delinquent peers in the context of situational action theory

Dominik Gerstner & Dietrich Oberwittler,

17:00 Revisiting the role of self-control in situational action theory

Clemens Kroneberg & Sonja Schultz

17:30 Deterrence and the propensity to crime: A test of situational action theory with data from the Cali Juvenile Study

Alfonso Serrano-Maillo

18:00 Bar opens

19:00 Workshop dinner

Sunday, 3 April

07:30 Breakfast

09:00 Testing SAT: Special topics

Chair: Dirk Enzmann

09:00 Situational action theory and frequent offending: An investigation comparing self-reports and police data.

Frank Weerman

09:30 Understanding mechanisms of parental monitoring within a SAT framework

Beth Hardie

10:00 Tax evasion in Sweden 2002-2013: Interpreting changes in a tax deduction system using SAT

Vania Ceccato

10:30 Sexual attitudes and behaviour: The link between consensual and non-consensual violence

Katrin Müller-Johnson & P-O Wikström

11:00 Coffee break

11:30 SAT and the Analyses and Study of Terrorism

Chair: Christopher Birkbeck

11:30 Topics in analysing and studying radicalisation within the framework of SAT

Noemie Bouhana

12:00 From political extremism to violence: A SAT analysis of far-right radicalism

Gali Perry

12:30 Discussant

Lieven Pauwels

13:00 Lunch
